

Alumni Theses: Islamic Studies

2026 Theses

- Batoul Hallal. Permanence and Impermanence: Re-evaluation of Ibn Khaldūn's Ibar Between Continued Existence and Human-made Environment

2025 Theses

- Mohammad Tabaja. The Intellectual History and Reception of Bahā' al-Dīn al-Āmilī's Tashrīḥ al-Aflāk (d. 1621)

2022 Theses

- Marlen Rau. Alternatives to the Sectarian Personal Status Laws: New Lebanese Conceptualizations of Secularism and Legal Pluralism in the Arab Post-Uprising Context

2020 Theses

- Christian Thiele. "The Discussion of the Soul is Difficult". The Soul as an Incorporeal and Simple Substance in the "Thirteenth Night" of Abu Hayyan ai-Tawhidi's Kitab al-Imta' wa-l-mu'anasa

2018 Theses

- Dima Moullem. Colloquy and Soliloquy in the Arabo-Islamic Heritage: Three Religious Interlocutors

2017 Theses

- Tobias Scheunchen. Slaves and Matrimony in the Legal Cultures of the late Sasanian and early Islamic Empires
- Rawan Al-Kayat. The Formation of Paradisiacal Notions in the Early Muslim Community: Influences and Innovations

2016 Theses

- Wissam Nuwayhid. Origin, Emanation and Return in al-Fayd al-Kāshānī's 'Ayn al-Yaqīn